Sir

I beg to respectfully bring to your kind notice, that in the disbursement of pay to me for April last, I was given only Rs 28-1-1 i.e. Re. 1-14-11 less. I was told that this was so because, there was no vacancy.

I am at a loss to know if I shall be put into any other vacancy or not, and whether I am not to expect any remuneration for my work during the Current month.

R. Vasudeva Rao.

He has also taken up the deletion of the remaining part of the Index for the Lists of File Headings for the same year. If at this stage his services were stopped the long standing arrears in Index work must again suffer delay in clearance.

of B. Seshadri Iyengar. The latter has returned Gday + Vasudeva Rao has to be drawn out. The Supt, Gen. Records where Vasudeva Rao is working recommends his case for favourable consideration as the clerk has been doing Indexing work satisfactorily. Vasudeva Rao is fully aware of his chances in the test + prays that he may be given a chance in the next Competitive Exam. There is a vacancy as pointed in para 2 of the office note + as a hand is wanted in the Gen. Rec° for Indexing work I submit he may be kept
